CITIZENS INPUT

BEVERLY NICKLAS

Beverly is on the Board of Trustees for the Shaw Public Library and wanted to thank the township for the annual donation and to let everyone know they should stop in at the library and see what all is happening. The library is a lot more than books. She said the library would appreciate any one-time donation the township could give above the normal annual amount.

CYNTHIA CODER

Cynthia was upset about the mowing that was done at her property on Yeager Road on August 21. She showed pictures of the forsythia and tree that were cut and she was upset about because of the way they were cut. She said she would have appreciated a call and she would have cut back more if needed as her and her husband had already cut back previously. Supervisor Ron Krise said he cut back due to his antenna getting broke off twice when plowing and the mirror hitting.

DENNIS SLOPPY

Dennis is concerned about Lake Street. There is a tree that is needing cut as it is blocking your view. He also stated about water coming down Horseshoe Lane and the potholes as well.

JAYME STONEBRAKER

Jayne also thanked the township for their donation to the library.
