STANDING COMMITTEES

HIGHWAY SAFETY COMMISSION Supervisor Denny Mulhollan said he hoped there was no more snow as they took the plows off most of the trucks. He said they have been busy cutting trees and installing pipe on the roads that are to be paved some time in May. They filled in with cold patch on roads and installed road signs.

EMERGENCY MANAGEMENT
COORDINATOR Justin Millinder, Emergency Management Coordinator, did not submit a report for the month of March.

CITIZENS INPUT

RON WISOR Ron asked the supervisors about Hidden Valley Road water problem.
He said his mother has been having problems and they asked former supervisor about it but nothing had been done. They supervisors said they would take a look at it.

JIM ENGLISH Jim told the supervisors that the bridge by the fire hall had been cleaned.
The supervisors thanked him. They said the secretary had told them it had been cleaned but they never got a chance to thank them.

AARON ENGLISH Aaron asked about an issue he was having with water on a property he had purchased that was causing a problem with the foundation. The supervisors said they would take a look at it.

GAVIN KEPHART Gavin is a scout with Troop 2 and asked permission from the supervisors to do his Eagle Scout project which consisted of some improvements at the Woodland Park. The supervisors were pleased to offer their support and told Gavin if he needed anything to let them know.

BRADFORD TOWNSHIP BOARD OF SUPERVISORS REGULAR MEETING

April 6, 2021

DAN MORRIS

Dan asked what the requirements were for a privacy fence. The supervisors told him if it was over 6' he would need a building permit. Dan also asked about having Watch Children signs installed on his road. He has concerns for the children in the area due to people traveling at a fast speed. The supervisors said they could put up the signs.

NEW BUSINESS

BIGLER YMCA

Moved by Ron Maines and seconded by Denny Mulhollan to donate the same amount as 2020 to the Bigler YMCA after Russ Krise spoke about the Summer Playground Program and introduced Alex who will be the new director since Russ is resigning. Ron Krise abstained due to his brother being the director for the YMCA in Bigler.
