RESOLUTION 2022-07 BJW Volunteer Fire Company approached the Supervisors requesting for an amendment to Resolution 94-5A which had established charges for emergency services provided by the Fire Company to update to current costs and added service items.

Moved to approve Resolution 2022-07 which is the amended resolution with cost and services changes.

STANDING COMMITTEES

HIGHWAY SAFETY COMMISSION Supervisor Denny Mulhollan said again he hoped plowing was done. He said the roads are all swept in the township. They have been working on drainage on Forcey Road to get it ready for paving. He said there was a little left to finish. They are moving on to Grahamton Road to work to get it ready for paving. They are waiting on the pipe for the bridge are to come in as well. Denny said they hired a part time person and he has been helping Tim with cold patch and potholes. He said they did tree trimming on Grahamton Road and the permit was received for the bridge. We are waiting on confirmation on the pipe. He stated how costly the permits were for the projects being worked on that require permits.

EMERGENCY MANAGEMENT COORDINATOR Justin Millinder, Emergency Management Coordinator, did not submit a report for the month of April.

CITIZENS INPUT

HEATHER ENGLISH Heather asked about Jury Road again. She said the road is still heaved up and she is concerned about someone tripping and falling on it.
