May 5, 2020

Motion Carried

RESOLUTION 2020-05

Moved to adopting Resolution 2020-05 amending the Personnel Policy of Bradford Township which would allow for comp time in place of overtime if the employee desires.

BIGLER HALL LIGHTING

Moved to the Township paying $1,600.00 for lighting upgrade at the Bigler Hall.

STANDING COMMITTEES

HIGHWAY SAFETY COMMISSION

Supervisor Denny Mulhollan, Jr. said they have been cutting trees They have been filling potholes and there are more to fill. They have been doing berms, putting in cross drains and are going to be starting on the Lake Street Grant Project. Denny asked for thoughts on the township having a Facebook page but it brought negative feedback. The township does have a website and it was suggested to keep using. Ron Krise mentioned the grants that had been applied for and were going to be applied for.

EMERGENCY MANAGEMENT COORDINATOR

Justin Millinder, Emergency Management Coordinator, did not submit a report for the month of April.

CITIZENS INPUT

NANCY HUMMEL

Nancy is concerned about the neighbor's dogs. She says they are vicious and try to jump over the fence. Is the fence to close to the sidewalk? The supervisors said it is a PennDOT road. She said the PSP have been called because of the barking. She was asked if she called the Dog Enforcement Officer and she had not. Supervisor Denny Mulhollan said he would contact her and let Nancy know the outcome.

DOUG LIVERGOOD

Doug asked about his road. He said it is not any better and wanted to know when it was going to be fixed. He also asked about internet service in the township. He said it is terrible and wanted to know when that may change. The supervisors told him that it was to be coming to rural areas supposedly.

ED MOWERY

Ed asked why Egypt Road was marked. He wanted to know what was going to happen on the road. He asked what the supervisors were doing about the pipe. They told him it was on the list for repair. He asked about the leaning trees and the supervisors told him they had talked to property owners about them. He asked why they sweep the roads.
