CITIZENS INPUT

DICK HEBERLING

Dick and other residents voiced their concerns on the solar farm that will be going in on Shiloh Road. The Supervisors said they would talk with the solicitor and see if there was anything that could be done. They said they would contact the solar farm people to set up a special meeting with residents to discuss their concerns.

KATE ROBERTS

Kate wanted to give the guys a pat on the back for the work they are doing in the township. She said she knows they don't get thanked for all they do.

VICTORIA MILLINDER

Victoria wanted to know what was going on with Dale Road that all her trees are dying off. The Supervisors said they would look into it.

JUSTINE DIXON

Justine asked about the recycle bins that used to be out in front of the township office. She was told they belonged to the county and were taken out six years ago. She asked why her road had not been mowed. When asked which road was hers, she stated it didn't matter it wasn't mowed.
